

fitme

Not quite fitting right? Work through our tips to get yours adjusted to your body:

adjustments we've got adjustments covered. Both our tops allow you to adjust around the back and over the shoulders - simply determine whether you prefer your tops sitting tight or loose - everyone's different!

fabric our fabric is super soft. It moulds to your body after a few wears, so if it's slightly tight on first try-on then you've got a winner!

tanlines yes, that's right! If you have visible tanlines from another bikini, then you can look more 'exposed' than you really are! Get those tanlines right and your bikini will look like it's made for you!

exchange_{me}

Followed our 'fitme' tips? Still no good? That's OK! As long as you meet our exchange policy, you simply send them back to us, along with this form, and we'll arrange an exchange for you - too easy! Read through our full exchange policy on our website at:

www.arkswimwear.com/exchange

If you meet and accept all exchange requirements, please fill out this form and include it with your unwanted goods, to be sent to the address at the top right of this document.

Please ensure you've met the following:

- You accept and have adhered to our exchange policy available to read at arkswimwear.com/exchange
- You've created an account at arkswimwear.com with your complete details including address/es and phone number, or updated your details if different from your original order
- Your returns are in 'as new' condition - unworn, unwashed, undamaged, unused and free of any perfume or other substances
- All original tags and sanitary liners remain attached, where appropriate
- Swimwear was tried on over underwear for sanitary reasons
- You have selected a replacement item that is in stock upon arrival at Ark Swimwear, and if not, you are happy to wait until it is back in stock

You are not eligible for an exchange unless you have met all of the above.
